There was nothing to let me know how much time had passed since I woke up, much less how much time had passed before I woke up. Shunning misogynistic horror tropes in favor of genuine drama and pure creepiness, McGuire has crafted a masterpiece of suspense with engaging, appealing characters who conduct a soul-shredding examination of what's true and what's reported.

I can't write this review without addressing the two other significant detractions. Said it would make you more confident in your own identity. My guess is that those times are just skipped.

My recovery after being bitten was too miraculous to believe. Series: Newsflesh Trilogy 3.
