If slightly biased towards the Administration and heavily focused on how the decision to send the 30,000 troops to Afghanistan was made, perhaps to the neglect of other aspects of the war, Woodward's book is detailed, appears well researched, and is an interesting look into how the Obama Administration has conducted the war in Afghanistan. Cohn had taken the letter.

It is quite evident you have never read a Bob Woodward book. However, Trump does not know what he has done. Trump had left, using an expletive. But the Trump administration's approach is so inchoate and irrational that this proves difficult.

Win this book! Dowd told Trump later that month: "Don't testify. The goal of any story is to use only on-the-record sources."
