I am sure, along the way, that one is bound to pick up other such little lessons that might strike one. I'm a fan of Elizabeth von Arnim. Through the instruction of her mentor, Herr Fritzing, she learns there is a wide and varied world outside the castle walls and yearns to escape. To me he seemed old; to Priscilla at twenty he seemed coeval with pyramids and kindred hoarinesses; while Princess Priscilla's Fortnight all those persons who were sixty-one he did not seem old at all.
