Suzanne Romaine and Elizabeth Closs Traugott, eds. Standardization, Purism and Sprachkritik since the 19th century The Grammatikalisierung (German Edition) century has long been neglected in German linguistic historiography as a consequence of the widely-held view that standardization had already been accomplished by the end of the 18th century, and that after the grammar of Gottsched and dictionary of Adelung, there was little left to be. Grammatikalisierung (German Edition) the last section, the most recent developments and suggestions of this field of study are discussions as well as questions related to the distinction between grammaticalization and other types of changes in language.
