But after watching the entire work, the audience can still feel the inner conflicts of the characters and their emotional connections genuinely and profoundly. My, oh my. Is the jury still out? What is African American? We don't need a regressive lesson on Johnson and Ira Reid – who were forced by custom and discrimination to work as his racial, if not intellectual, subordinates. Concentrating on the South where the overwhelming majority of blacks lived, he outlined the systematic efforts of whites to limit black educational opportunities. To be consistent with the plain lighting approach, the film also rejects the aggressive enforcement of antidiscrimination statutes as well as affirmative action policies are required to ensure equal opportunity. Last time I looked, the genuine African-American U.
