However, TB fidgets and looks away from F again while scratching her body line Where data were available for individual trials, each trial using canonical phonological stimuli was included in the meta-analysis e. Based on these findings, Falk proposed the above hypothesis regarding the Discourse Process. Thus, we can conclude that Rogers and Ross used stimuli that violated the phonetic structure of the Hunjara language, and we used stimuli that violated the phonotactic and tonotactic structure of the Syuba language. Kovic, V. Thanks to Roshan Lama for recording the audio stimuli.

That conclusion stems from observing five orangutans, comprising two adults, two juveniles and an infant, housed at the Tama Zoological Park.
