Platzman, Steven. His father had died in and his mother there eight years later. The authors investigate the chronological evolution of his portrait work, with an examination of the changes that occurred within his artistic style and method, and in his understanding of resemblance and identity. During this period inevitably I repeat myself we turn to the admirable works handed down to us through the ages, where we find and support, like the plank for the bather. Munich: Alte Pinakothek, pp. Togglenavigation. As an artist and an innovator, he is responsible for co-founding the entire Cubist movement alongside Georges Braque.
